New Year Resolutions. A new leaf I'll turn over. No more I'll "take for mine." Three fingers of old "Overholt," Or on a glass of wine. My overhauling pipe—I bid to thee. A long and fond farewell. This friend that thou hast been to me No tongue can ever tell. And thou, too, dainty cigarette, Of fairest Cairo make, Thy perfume kiss is not for me, Although my heart should break. Farewell to lovely women; She, also, I'll enclose. The thought is bitter unto me As aloes, myrrh, or rue. There are most potent reasons Why I thus self-abnegate. For the next five years, at Sing Sing, I'll be working for the State.

Local and Personal.

He was looking well and talked with interest about the political situation as viewed from the National capital. At the turkey shooting near Wallaha on Monday last some good marksmanship was displayed. All the fowls were murdered to the queen's taste. After the target shooting for prizes was over a medium-sized row was indulged in by a number of sports. Several persons were more or less hurt—none seriously. Oh, it was glorious!

New Masonic Officers. On Tuesday evening the following officers were installed by James Seaborn, Esq., Past Master, to serve Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 102, A. F. M., for the ensuing Masonic year: R. T. Evans, W. M.; J. Daniel, S. W.; H. S. VanDyke, Jr., W. J. D. A. Smith, Treasurer; W. O. White, Secretary; O. W. Pitchford, S. D.; J. N. Rutherford, C. L.

Married. At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Muller, on Wednesday evening, December 28th, 1898, at half past eight o'clock, Mr. Chas. Finkenstadt to Miss Carrie Muller, Rev. J. G. Schindt officiating. After the ceremony an elegant supper was served. Several invited guests were present. The bridal presents were numerous, and both useful and ornamental. The happy couple received the congratulations of many friends, who wish them a long life of joy and prosperity.

Welcome Guests. Abbeville Press and Banner, December 28: "During the past few days the Press and Banner were pleased to welcome two most worthy and distinguished guests, Messrs. D. A. Smith, Jr., and Marvin J. Smith, good printers in the Keowee County Office, Wallaha, S. C., called to look in at the printing office. They are good looking young men, and if they do not in the business affairs of life come up to all the requirements, then they fall short of the indications of their good looks."

Change of Date for Holding United States Court. By an Act of Congress, approved the 21st day of December, 1898, the time of holding the United States District Court has been changed from the first Monday in February, 1899, to the 25th day of April, 1899. There will be no session of the United States District Court in February next, but the court will convene on the 25th day of April, 1899. All defendants and witnesses recognized to appear in Greenville to attend court will take notice of the change of time. J. W. SHELTON, U. S. Commissioner.

Marriage at Clemson. Because rain stops many things in life we are not to conclude that it stops marriages. On Wednesday, December 28th, 1898, was a very rainy day but it witnessed a scene of pleasure at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Goodman, Clemson College, S. C.—the marriage of Mr. J. McCue, Clemson College, to their daughter, Miss Nettie L. Goodman. About 2 o'clock Pauline and Sallie, pretty little girls, sisters of the bride, were asked to draw aside the curtain which covered the parlor doorway. In came Mr. Joseph Hoover with Miss Nettie McCue, followed by the bride and groom. The ceremony was performed with a few words by Rev. B. P. Reid, Pendleton, S. C. After the ceremony a beautiful and tastefully prepared dinner was served and much enjoyed by those present. It is needless to say. The following persons were present, besides the family and friends: Good men; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McCue, Keowee, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCue, Clemson College; Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. McCue, Anderson; M. Davis, Seneca; Mrs. A. Schilleter and children, Clemson College; Miss Zola Hubbard, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Kistler, Miss Cora Hubbard, who was to stand with Mr. Will Goodman, was detained by the weather. The bride was prettily attired in a dress of brown silk Henrietta. Mr. Lee I. McCue is an engineer in the employ of the Mechanical Department of Clemson College.

The Annual Christmas Hop. The Annual Hop of the Wallaha Dancing Club on the 20th instant, in the new and beautiful hall of C. W. Pitchford, was a glowing success. The committee in charge deserve much praise for their splendid management of this brilliant affair. Many visitors from neighboring cities were present. The delightful music was furnished by the Greenville String Band. Present—Messieurs Dandy, A. C. Merriek, Pratt, Culworth, Darby, Norman, Hughes and Wilson; Misses Dandy, Julia K. Maxwell, Strother, Hicks, Norman, Gibson, Perry, Bell, Thompson, Kay, Merriek, Julia J. Maxwell, Rose, Nield, Sue Maxwell. The lady visitors were Mrs. Jno. M. Patrick, Miss Lucia Taylor, Miss Lizzie Crayton and Miss Marie Prevost, of Anderson; Miss Reta Sifton, of Pendleton; Miss Lucie Lewis, of Greenville; Christine Dickson and Julia Bryan, of Seneca. Gentlemen present—Messrs. A. C. Merriek, Darby, Culworth, Nield, Pratt, R. Q. Merriek, James and George Ansel, J. H. Darby, Reid, Hughes, Seaborn, Jaynes, Ray, Merriek, Thompson, Kay. The gentlemen visitors—Messrs. Belcher, Silverman, Prevost, Anderson; Moss and Douthitt, of Clemson; Riley and Reynolds, of Greenville; C. S. Merriek, of Greenville; C. W. Pitchford, of Wallenburg; W. L. Gibson, of Columbia; Doyle and Fincannon, of Seneca; A. Rae Dandy, Charlotte, N. C. and McNeil, of Greenville, S. C.

Prospective Mothers. Should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription rubs childbirth of its terrors and terrors for her as well as its dangers to both mother and child, by aiding nature in preparing the system for parturition, and thereby making labor and almost painless. Thereby it saves and also the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes an easy secretion of milk for the nursing of the child. During pregnancy it prevents "morning sickness" and those distressing, nervous symptoms, from which so many suffer. It use should be begun early in the period of gestation—in fact the earlier the better.

Farmstead—Hill. WESTMINSTER, S. C. December 28, 1898.—The marriage of Mr. Thos. V. Finkenstadt, of Greenville, S. C., to Miss Isabelle McBride Hill, of Gainesville, Ga., which was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hill, on Sycamore street, in Gainesville to-day, was a very pleasant event. They were attended by Mr. W. T. Ashbury, of Richland, and Miss May Hill, sister of the bride. Just as the city clock was striking the noon hour Mrs. W. P. Garrett announced the coming of the bridal party by a popular wedding march from the piano. Rev. J. A. Wynne, D. D., of the First Baptist church, performed the marriage ceremony. It was the most impressive ceremony we ever list to, lasting over ten minutes. The parlor had been made dark and was artificially lighted. The decorations were principally of white and blue. After the ceremony a most sumptuous repast was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Finkenstadt is a young lady of charming graces. Mr. Finkenstadt was reared in this country and his numerous friends congratulate him in his good fortune. They are the recipients of many costly and handsome bridal presents. From friends in Greenville and South Carolina. After spending a few days in Wallaha with Dr. T. G. G. Finkenstadt, father of the groom, they will take up residence in Gainesville, where the groom has been successfully engaged in business for several years. A CARD. MESSRS. EDITORS: Will you please allow me space in your columns to express my sincere thanks to those members of the Methodist church who remembered me so kindly in generous gifts last Friday and Saturday. May God's richest blessing rest upon each one of them. (REV.) J. L. DANIEL.

Public School Term Continued. We are authorized to announce that the public school term will continue during January. It has recently been promoted and placed in charge of the transfer at the crossing of 7th street and Pennsylvania Avenue, the most populous portion of the city. He is distinguished for his physical prowess and courteous manners. We predict a steady line of promotion, and expect to hear of him being on the metropolitan force one of these days.

Officers Elected. At the regular meeting of Wallaha Lodge, No. 67, Knights of Pythias, on Monday night last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chancellor, Commander, C. G. Hill; Vice Chancellor, J. W. Shelor; Prelate, J. W. Bell; Keeper of Records, W. L. Gibson; Master of Finance, E. S. Holloman; Master of Eschequer, W. D. Moss; Master-at-Arms, J. M. Ward; Inner Guard, James Thompson; Outer Guard, G. K. Maxwell.

Schroder—Kay. At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. T. Kay, in Wallaha, on Wednesday evening, December 28th, 1898, Mr. Fred A. H. Schroder and Miss Cora Lee Kay were married by Rev. J. L. Daniel, of the Methodist church. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom and a few invited guests were present. At 7 o'clock the bride and groom entered the church, where all guests were assembled, and in a solemn and impressive manner the officiating minister united the happy young couple in the holy bonds of matrimony. After the ceremony congratulations were extended, and the guests were summoned to partake of an elegant wedding repast. Numerous, handsome and useful presents were received by the young couple. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. J. T. Kay and is known and admired by a host of friends as a modest and accomplished young lady. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. J. W. Schroder, and is held in the highest esteem by all who know him. He has for several years been a valued employee in The Cotton office, where he holds the respect and esteem of all.

To the well-wishes of the many friends of this popular young couple The Commercial adds its best wishes for a long, prosperous and happy journey through life. Mr. and Mrs. Schroder will make Wallaha their home.

Her Health Restored. THE misery of sleeplessness can only be realized by those who have experienced it. Nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, neuralgia and that miserable feeling of unrest, can surely be cured by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. So certain is Dr. Miles of this fact that a chemist is authorized to refund price paid for the first bottle tried, providing it does not benefit. Mrs. Henry Bruce, wife of the well known business man of Grand Junction, Iowa, says: "I was troubled with sleeplessness, nervousness, headache and irregular menstruation, suffering under misery for years. I used various advertised remedies for female complaints besides being under the care of local physicians, without help. I noticed in Dr. Miles' advertisement the testimonial of a lady cured of ailments similar to mine, and I shall never cease to thank that lady. Her testimonial induced me to use Dr. Miles' Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills, which restored me to health. I cannot say enough for Dr. Miles' Remedies." Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

OUR WESTMINSTER BUDGET. CONDUCTED BY A. L. GOSSETT. WESTMINSTER, December 28.—A happy and prosperous New Year to all. Mr. Isaac F. Brown, of Spartanburg, is circulating among friends in Westminster this week. An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. James Cowan, aged two months, was buried in this city on Wednesday, December 28th. Mr. A. H. Dagall came home to enjoy the Christmas festivities with his father's family. He is engaged in teaching school near Raleigh, Ga., eleven miles north of Savannah. Miss Cora Parkins, the charming daughter of Capt. Parkins, of Greenville, was visiting her friend, Miss Bessie Norris, during the holidays. Mrs. J. T. Quillian and Mr. W. A. Quillian, of Harmony Grove, Ga., and Mr. W. L. Little, traveling salesman for John B. Daniel, Atlanta, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claude Little during the past week. Mr. Hugh Hibb, of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., came home last week to spend Christmas. Hugh seems to be enjoying his visit very much. Miss Maggie Sheldon spent a part of the Christmas holidays with home folks near South Union. Rev. P. J. Vermillion and family are visiting his father at Donald's this week. Mr. W. J. Wyly, of the Columbia Theological Seminary, came up last Thursday and spent a few days with his father's family, near Raleigh, Ga. He spent a few hours in Westminster Tuesday as he was returning to Columbia. Nearly all the merchants are taking stock this week. Married, on Thursday afternoon, December 22d, 1898, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. T. R. Jenkins, by Rev. R. R. Dagall, Mr. W. M. Burrell to Miss Mary M. Jenkins. All of Oconee county. Our esteemed friend, Rev. J. T. Dundy, of the Westminster Seminary, Columbia, was in town this week and paid us an appreciated visit. He returned to Columbia on Friday. Mr. Burt Freeman, of Atlanta, was in Westminster this week visiting relatives and friends. Mr. W. H. Stribbling had the misfortune to lose a good horse last week. Mr. Robt. Reid, of Adairville, Ga., is in town to-day. Miss L. S. Stiles, of Toccoa, Ga., is on a visit to her friend, Miss Lily Doyle, this week. So far the holidays have passed very quietly. The types caused us to make a few errors last week. It looks like they were playing "steal partner," for names and titles were changed. We regret that the errors occurred. No doubt they were due to the compositor's being a little "rattled," as he was then contemplating "stealing a partner" and changing a name.—(En.)

THE SURE LA GRIFFE CURE. There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pains all through your body; your liver is out of order; have no appetite; no life or ambition; have a bad cough; your eyes are completely closed. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on the liver, cleanse the blood, and give you the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at W. B. Beckwith, Wallaha; J. W. Lumney, Seneca, and H. B. Zimmerman, Westminster. Mr. W. B. Beckwith has a business trip near Tugaloo river last Monday and Tuesday. The present days almost make the farmers laugh on account of small grain crops. Misses Mary and Lena Reid, of White's Fork, were visiting friends and relatives on the creek through the Christmas holidays. Mr. Codo Cobb, of Rocky Fork, was seen not long ago. Mr. Stiles Cobb, of Long Creek, visited his relatives, Mr. S. Cobb and family, last week. Goody-GLADLY. To Pat On needed flesh, no matter how you've lost it. Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It works wonders. By restoring the normal action of the deranged organs and functions, it builds the flesh up to a safe and healthy standard. It promptly, pleasantly and naturally, the weak, emaciated, thin, pale and puny are made strong, plump, round and rosy. Nothing so effective as a strength restorer and flesh maker is known to medicine science; this puts on healthy flesh, not the fat of cod liver oil. It rouses every fiber of the body to activity, purifies the arteries and vitalizes the blood so that the body feels refreshed and strengthened. If you are too thin, too nervous, it may be that the food assimilation is not fast. A certain amount of bile is necessary for the reception of the fat foods in the blood. Too often the liver holds back this element which would help digestion. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People stimulates, tones up and invigorates the liver, nourishes the blood, and the muscles, stomach and nerves get the rich blood they require.

Return Items. DECEMBER 26, 1898.—Mr. Wm. Hatcher and his friend, Mr. Phillips, of Johnson, Texas, are visiting the family of Mr. D. A. Lelley, his son-in-law, near Newry. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tannery enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Driver Christmas day, and to-day will take dinner at Mr. A. Bearden's. We regret to chronicle the death of our friend, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Driver, who died December 22d, after a lingering illness. She was buried on the 23rd in the Monticello Methodist cemetery. She was 58 years old. She joined the M. E. church in early life and led a consistent Christian life. In 1856 she was happily married to Mr. T. M. Robt.
